Specially Priced New Spring Suits

Kaufmann & Co

$25.00, $30.00 and $35.00

In order to secure the most exclusive of the advanced spring styles we had these suits made especially for us from designs we selected from the newest imported models. All the coming fashionable materials are shown and a number of new and effective features are introduced in collar, sleeves and skirts. The choice of colors is various, including new shades of gray, blue, tan, etc. Being between trade seasons, the manufacturers gave us special concessions, so that we can now offer these beautiful new suits to you at remarkably low figures—much less than what the same character of garments will sell for a little later.

New Lingerie Waists

We have just received many new lines of Waists, in both lingerie and tailor-made effects, that will be put on sale Monday. They express new and good ideas, and are in every instance unusually good values at the prices we shall quote on $1.25 them. All the new long sleeves, many pretty models, at $1.25

Better grades at $1.50, $1.75, up to $5.

Clearance Sale of Winter Garments

SUITS, $10.85 $7.50 COATS

As a special feature for the final week of our great Clearance Sale we are offering the balance of Suits at $10.85, formerly priced $25.00, and Coats at $7.50. This may not appeal to you as a real fact. Then why not see them tomorrow for your own satisfaction.

The Speaking Cast of "Bibi."

Rehearsals for the many different features of "Bibi" are progressing, and much interest is being taken in this novel entertainment to be given in February for the benefit of the Confederate Home for Needy Women. Miss Ethel Bailey will sustain her reputation as an entertainer in the main part of the play, while other members of the cast will be Misses Mary White, Maggie Bezzant, Rebecca Walker, Elizabeth Willson, Nannie Crawford and Messrs. Edward Breeden, George D. Richardson, Herbert Carkran, W. H. Kelley, Lewis Cutchins and Woodridge Luck.

This patriotic specialty, "Dixie," will include the following young ladies: Misses Marguerite Stoltz, Elizabeth Patton, Bessie Cross, Evelyn Richardson, Ida Bailey, Ethel Wharton, Cornelia Crane, Susie Cooke, Silvia May, Ethel Lester, Dora Horner, Ruby Stoltz, Stella Jolly, Eliza Ingram, Ollie Gregory, Kathleen O'Bannon, Alice Ingram, Imogen Gregory, Nancy Allen, Virginia Giel Entenhausen.

Miss Mary Osborn Templeton, of Waynesboro, Va., who is well known in Richmond, having often visited here, is the guest of Mrs. A. G. Clapham in her home on Connecticut Avenue, Washington, and is having a most delightful visit, several entertainments having been given in her honor. On the 26th Mrs. Clapham gave her tea from 5 to 7 in the afternoon, followed by a buffet dinner. Hon. Hal D. Flood gave a luncheon for her on Wednesday last. Among his guests were Mrs. Clapham, Miss Ella Terry, J. Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, and Andrew Peters, of Boston.

Several box parties and suppers are being planned for the coming week in honor of Miss Templeton.

Meeting of Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies of the First English Lutheran Church, at Seventh and Grace Streets, will have an important meeting on Thursday next, February 4th, at 2 o'clock. Officers for the year will be elected, and all members are urged to be present. Non-members will be gladly received and welcomed.

Oakwood Association.

A meeting of the Senior and Junior Oakwood Associations will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the brick schoolhouse at St. John's Church. All members are urged to be present, as arrangements will be made for celebrating Oakwood Memorial Day.

Miss Steinlein's Recital.

Miss Nancy Parker Steinlein gave a charming song recital yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Miss Effie Aylett Coker's studio, at 293 East Franklin Street. Miss Steinlein has a beautiful voice, and sang La Farge's "Erubungszug," "Sans Tol," D'Hardlot and Dell Acqua's "Villanelle" and Schubert's "Since First I Met Thee" most artistically. Bohrer's "Calm as the Night," followed by an air from Handel's exquisite music of the "Messiah," were both beautifully rendered.

Miss Coker also sang several selections during the evening in her usual charming manner, and Miss Steinlein was further assisted by Miss Maude Seale, who rendered Fisher's "Under the Rose" and the "Lullaby" from "God's Belongings." After "The Temple Bells" from "The Garden of Kanaan," was sung by Miss Starke, tea was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Informal At Home.

Mrs. Benjamin H. Berry and her daughter, Mrs. Charles K. Bryant, will be at home informally, the first three Wednesdays in February, from 5 to 7, at their home, 117 North Fifth Street. Mrs. Samuelson's guests.

Mrs. M. A. Samuelson was hostess last night at a delightful Dutch supper, given in her home, 1134 West Avenue, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kerfoot Coker, of Pittsburgh, who are visiting Mrs. Coker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Grigg. Among her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Grenor Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller.

To Meet Miss MacCorkle.

Mrs. Andrew Blair Blair has issued invitations to a tea to be given in her home on Tuesday, February 23, from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of Miss MacCorkle, the new secretary of the Woman's Christian Association.

Tea on Thursday.

Mrs. Williamson Talley will be hostess on Thursday afternoon at a tea to be given in her residence, 1828 West Franklin Street.

U. D. C. Social Tea.

The Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will give its annual social tea next Wednesday, from 5 to 7, in Lee Camp Hall. The ladies receiving will be the officers of the chapter, the president of the Chesterfield Chapter and the presidents of the memorial associations. All veterans are invited to be present, and any visiting daughters in the city.

Series of Recitals.

An entertaining series of recitals will be given during February, in which Miss Annie Louie Reinhardt will play the violin selections and Miss Myrtle Redford will be pianist. An interesting feature will be the monologue readings by Miss Semaj DeP. Bolce.

For Monumental Chapter.

Monumental Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Paul will give a minstrel show at Bellevue Hall on February 4th at 8:30 P. M.

Branch R. Allen Auxiliary.

The regular monthly meeting of the Branch R. Allen Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday, February 2d, at 11 o'clock, in the annex of Murphy's Hotel.

The annual election of officers will be held, and the president earnestly requests each member to be present.

St. John's Circle.

St. John's Circle of the King's Daughters will hold a very important meeting Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. A. Cheatwood, 2110 East Grace Street. A full attendance is requested, as important business in connection with the annual entertainment will be discussed.

Miss Culpeper's Cotillon.

One of the prettiest dances of the month was given last week at the cottage of Mrs. Charles Culpeper, in honor of her daughter, Miss Ottoline Culpeper, and Miss Culpeper's cousin, Miss Margaret Dongan, of Portsmouth.

The dance was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harwood, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harwood, Jr., and Mrs. Dongan. The receiving party was assisted by Misses Marguerite Donnan and Beatrice Kitchener. Punch was served during the evening by Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. R. H. Harwood, and the dance was led by Mr. Edward Haynes, dancing with Miss Culpeper. Two figures were led with flags and Japanese parasols, and favors included opera glasses for the young ladies and mandolins for the boys. The girls were charming in their pretty evening frocks.

The cotillon began at 8 o'clock and continued until 11:30. Those dancing were Misses Margaret Dongan, Edith Donnan, Katharine and Elizabeth Eades, Virginia Chesterman, Dallas Lee, Margaret Quarles, Martha Pur-

COLONEL W. W. SALE, of Norfolk.

The engagement of Miss Tunis to Colonel Sale was announced in Norfolk yesterday, and as both are prominent socially, created much interest. Miss Tunis is an accomplished writer, a contributor to a number of leading newspapers and magazines, and a young woman of unusually attractive personality. Her fiancé is a State Senator from his district, a member of the Governor's staff and of the Norfolk clubs. The date of the marriage will be given later.

MISS EDITH DABNEY TUNIS, of Norfolk, Va.

Leisure Time—Pleasure Time—

Every hour of leisure time can be made a pleasure hour if you have one of our Inner-Player Pianos in your home. You can play this instrument yourself even if you have never taken a music lesson, and that, too, as well as the skilled pianist can on an ordinary piano.

LET US SHOW YOU. Liberal allowance for pianos taken in exchange. Easy terms.
